Dear Ms. Bishop:

This letter responds to your Freedom of Information Act request, received in U.S. Fleet Forces Command on April 20, 2016, and assigned case file number USFF 2016-39-5329, wherein you request the Position Description (PD) of Ms. Shirley McCollough, an employee of Norfolk Naval Ship Yard.

Your request was processed under applicable provisions of the Freedom of Information Act statute (5 U.S.C. § 522, as amended) and the Privacy Act, the implementing Department of the Navy regulation 32 C.F.R. § 701, and the policy of releasing the maximum amount of information. After a review of the responsive document, it was determined that certain portions of the document was exempt from disclosure under the following FOIA exemptions:

5 USC 552(b)(6), information in personnel and medical files, as well as similar personal information in other files (for example: names and ranks of active duty military personnel, social security numbers, home addresses, email addresses, phone numbers, etc.), that, if disclosed, would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The releasable portions of the document are provided as enclosure (1).

The fees associated with the processing of your request are less than $15.00 and will not be charged in this case.

Because your request has been denied in part, you may appeal this determination, in writing, to:

Office of the General Counsel
Department of the Navy
ATTN: FOIA Appeals
1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 5A532
Washington, DC 20350-1000

Your appeal must be received within sixty (60) calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this partial denial letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter and should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this initial decision to be in error.
